

Senior Packaging Artworker

To contribute to the performance of the production studio through the delivery of high quality accurate and commercially focused artwork for a wide range of print based projects.

Knowledge / Experience / Skills

Minimum of 5 years experience producing packaging artwork within the graphics arts industry. Previous experience in the creation and management of Brand guidelines and templates.

You will be able to demonstrate;

- Good attention to detail.
- Sound knowledge of all print process requirements (relating to pre-press).
- A good sense of layout, balance and how to display information.
- Strong computer skills in required production software.
- Good planning and organizational skills.
- Works well under pressure to meet tight deadlines.
- Adaptability and flexibility.
- Enthusiasm, initiative and ability to work as part of a team.

Key Responsibilities

- To adhere to the company's "Standard Operating Procedures".
- To be flexible in line with the demands placed on the business to ensure (OTIF) delivery to clients in accordance with (SLA's).
- To prepare final artwork for print, ensuring client requirement are met.
- To demonstrate an exceptional understanding & capability in artwork production complimented with an understanding of the repro process that will enable the delivery of high-class graphics production.
- To generate repro ready, error free artwork, in accordance with internal guidelines for artwork creation (SOP's) whilst respecting brand guidelines.
- To ensure all job folders contain final outputs, and sub folders are clearly identified.
- To keep production management informed of any jobs that may become a risk of non-delivery.
- To carry out self-checks on produced artwork.
- To complete the appropriate checklist, sign and date.
- To record all time and materials into the job system.
- To carry out calibration and maintenance routines in accordance with (SOP's) for the department.
- To support the business in other areas as may be required from time to time.

Package

Commensurate to ability

For further details or to apply please send links and CV to Tony Knight: tony.knight@magharl.co.uk